REVEREND 1 2009

MASS SCHEDULES

November 1, 2009—ALL SAINTS DAY

All Saints Day and Year of the Priest,

The history of the Church is filled with stories of individuals who were canonized because of their courage and their holiness. All of us know that there are countless others who are saints even if they are not among the canonized. The Feast of All Saints, a holy day of obligation, is meant to honor their memory.

As we celebrate the Feast of All Saints on November 1, we celebrate the lives of “those who have died and gone before us into the presence of the Lord.” They have provided models for Christians through all of history.

During this Year of the Priest, many of the faithful have asked what they might do to honor the priests who serve in this Archdiocese. The Feast of All Saints seems a particularly appropriate time for me to request the special prayers of our people for these priests. Today, I ask that the Feast of All Saints be a special day of prayer for priests. May all those priests who minister in the Archdiocese of Portland one day be counted among those whose feast we celebrate on All Saints Day.

Archbishop John G. Vlazny
Archbishop of Portland in Oregon

Dear Parishioners,

As we all know, the flu season is upon us. In the past several days, I have received many inquiries from parishioners who have felt uncomfortable at Mass while the flu spreads in our communities. Clearly, common sense is the best advice anyone can give. Everyone should be conscientious about washing their hands and refraining from touching their eyes and nose. If anyone is not feeling well, they should not attend Mass.

However, because of the H1N1 virus, things are different. On Friday morning, Oct. 23, Josephine County declared a local state of emergency due to the outbreak of H1N1 influenza. Therefore, after consultation with the Archdiocese Office of Worship and others here in our own parish, I have decided to return to the regulations given to us last year by the Archbishop during our last flu outbreak.

This means that I am asking everyone to refrain from holding hands during the Our Father, replacing a shake of hands at the Sign of Peace with a friendly wave to each other, and Communion in the hand with the host only. This means we will suspend the offering of the Precious Blood at Mass. These regulations will be in effect until I determine that it is okay to return to our previous liturgical norms. As was the case last year, some will not agree or like these directives, but I ask your obedience and potential sacrifice of your personal piety for the greater good of the community. Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Fr. William Holtzinger,
Pastor

FROM THE OFFICE OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Thank you to all who invited children to come to our program. We have 4 more students. I also want to thank the parishioner who took up upon herself to invite all of her son's class to come to confirmation. She told me that she saw students missing and invited them to come to Confirmation. Thanks again for answering the call to evangelize.

Our Advent Fair is on November 29th, at 9:30 AM. I want to invite all families of the parish to this event. This is for all young and young at heart alike to start off the Advent Season. So far we have only 2 volunteers signed up to help, and we need donations of evergreens to make wreaths. This is the first year that we have made this an all parish event, so please help to make it a success. Please call 479-4848 and sign up today.

Our Sacramental Preparation Class for First Holy Communion is growing. We are now at 22 children.

I also need a catechist for RCIA for children. If you are interested please call me at 479-4848.

Your Servant in Christ,

Terry Knouff
Director of Religious Education

"PARISH NEWS"

ALTAR SOCIETY: All ladies of the parish are welcome to join us for our meeting at 11:40 AM, Tuesday, November 3, for recitation of the rosary in the church, followed by a luncheon meeting in the parish center.

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS WILL HOLD THEIR ANNUAL Remembrance Mass (formerly Memorial Mass) at 7:00PM, Wednesday, November 11, 2009 in the church. This Mass is held annually in remembrance of our deceased Knights and ladies. All Knights and their families, widows of Knights and all parishioners are invited to attend this special Mass. Reception follows in the parish center.

REMEMBER, THIS NEXT FRIDAY, IS FIRST FRIDAY AND THERE WILL BE A 12:05PM MASS. IF YOU ARE INTERESTED, WE PROPOSE TO HAVE A luncheon style potluck in the KYC (this time) right after the 12:05 PM First Friday Mass on November 6th. If you are able to attend this midday Mass, would you be interested in bringing a food dish to share in this potluck at about 12:45 PM? Please contact the parish center or parish office if you wish to participate in this fellowship.

ATTENTION VETERANS AND RELATIVES of veterans. Our normal daily Mass at 8:00 AM on Wednesday, November 11, will honor our veterans. If you can attend, please wear your uniform or something which signifies your branch of service, unit, period of time served, etc. Help make this a "special" Mass to honor our veterans.

VETERAN'S PRAYER LIST UPDATE. Please make any changes necessary to one of the veteran's prayer lists posted at the parish office, parish center, church vestibules, or Adoration Chapel. We will publish an updated list in time for Veteran's Day. Please call Alan Crews at the parish office, 476-2240, if you have a relative or know of a parishioner's family member who is currently deployed either to Iraq or Afghanistan. We will specifically recognize those veterans this year.

TRADITIONALLY IN NOVEMBER, THE HOLY MOTHER CHURCH reminds us to pray for the deceased, particularly our relatives, friends and members of our Armed Services, who gave their lives for our freedoms. Books for our deceased loved ones can be found near the statues of Jesus and Mary. All parishioners are invited to list loved ones they would like prayers for and these books will be placed in front of the Altar during regular Masses in November and included in the general intercessions.

ANNUAL PARISH OFFERTORY PROGRAM. This weekend and throughout the month of November, we will again initiate our annual Parish Offertory Program. The first part of this process is updating our census. Next weekend, the homily will focus on the value of Christian stewardship and how each family can commit to the parish. More information will appear in the bulletin each week during this most important process, during which we will outline the needs of the parish.

COMMUNION TO THE HOME-BOUND WORKSHOPS COMING:

Do you feel called to visit the sick or homebound? Would you like to share the gift of the Eucharist with them? Are you already a minister of communion to the sick and homebound and would like a refresher or updating? Two more workshops are being held by Fr. Bill on Tuesday, November 3, at 6:00PM and Sunday, November 15, at 1:00PM. It is not necessary you attend both workshops, only one is necessary. These workshops will take place in the library in the parish center. Your gift of time visiting those in need with the Eucharist is a gift that extends our community to those who often feel to be on the fringe or even unknown. Please discern if God is calling you to step up in this way to help those who want Christ in the Eucharist and the care of another human being.

HE WILL REJOICE OVER YOU WITH LOVE: CELEBRATING ALL THE DAYS OF ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS.

A weekend retreat at St. Rita's Retreat Center led by Jeanne Ellen Podolski, MAAT (Cand.) from November 20-22, 2009. You are invited to give yourself a weekend of rest, relaxation, and prayerful insight, opening yourself to the Lord as He "rejoices over you with love." As we prepare for the wonderful seasons of Advent and Christmas, we will reflect on the beautiful scriptures to be proclaimed in the weeks ahead. We will also look at the many special days that grace the liturgical calendar and the customs that have become a part of the seasons to see how we might celebrate and bless them in new ways. Cost is $105, if registration and payment is received by November 3, $120 after that date. To register or more info, contact Jeanne Ellen at 541-512-0672 or mail4jep@aol.com.

CAN YOU PERIODICALLY PROVIDE A RIDE TO SUNDAY MASS for an elderly parishioner and her 2 adult, special needs daughters, none of which can drive? They live in the area behind the new Albertson's off Redwood Highway and Allen Creek Road. If you can help, please call Dave Santos at 955-7339. Thank you.

PARENTS AND YOUNG PEOPLE...WE NEED ALTAR SERVERS.

If you are about 9-10 years old and have had your First Communion, we need you! We have several excellent altar servers that you see every weekend, but those wonderful youth need your help too. We really hope to see more middle school through high school youth involved in this important ministry in our church. Please call the parish office or parish center and let us know of your interest. We have not scheduled training sessions yet, but we will do so as soon as we know how many are interested. Please sign up.

"OTHER NEWS"

OUR MISSION CHURCH, ST. PATRICK'S OF THE FOREST is having their "Holiday Country Store" Christmas bazaar, Friday-Saturday, Nov 13-14, 10:00AM-4:00PM, at the church in Cave Junction. Vendor space is available. This is sponsored by the St Patrick's Altar Society. For more information or to reserve a space, call Marcia Lovejoy at 659-7058 or Clara Hamilton at 592-3196.

THERE WILL BE A DAY OF REFLECTION FOR parents and other family members of lesbian daughters and gay sons at the Benedictine Sisters Shalom Center in Mt. Angel, OR. This will be on Saturday, November 21, 2009 from 9:00AM until 3:00PM. Florence and Steve Balog, Catholic parents of twin, lesbian daughters, will be the presenters. They will use the U.S. Catholic Bishops' Pastoral Letter, "Always Our Children" as the focal point for this day. For more information you may phone the Shalom Center at 503-845-6773 or Florence and Steve at 503-845-7850. For information on several other retreats and presentations in Nov-Dec at Mt Angel's Shalom Prayer Center, see their newsletter posted on bulletin boards in the church, parish center or parish office.

THERE IS A GROWING NEED FOR FOSTER PARENTS to work with at-risk youth here in Josephine County. This is a great opportunity for someone wanting to make a difference in a young person's life through positive role modeling and skill building. SOASTC provides training, daily support, monthly respite, and $1,500 monthly reimbursement. Please give us a call at 956-4943 ext 1105 or visit our website at www.soastc.org.
